Art Unit: 3744

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-3, 5-7, 9-11, and 13-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Miller et al. Miller et al discloses an air conditioning apparatus 10, 20 for a construction vehicle which is placed on the right side of the cab. See especially Fig. 1.

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 4 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Miller et al in view of Okada et al. Miller et al discloses the claimed invention except for the pipe portions of the air conditioning unit being exposed outside of the cab. Okada et al teaches an air conditioning apparatus 9 for a cab in which the pipe portions thereof are exposed to the outside. It would be obvious to modify Miller et al so that the pipe portions of the air conditioning apparatus are exposed to the outside, in view of Okada et al, for the purpose of ease of repair of the unit.

5. Claims 8 and 16 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Art Unit: 3744

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
